

PORTUGAL CHAMPIONSHIP'10 – MONTE DA RAVASQUEIRA

THE PROPERTY

THE PROPERTY

MONTE DA RAVASQUEIRA

- Monte da Ravasqueira has been linked to the family José De Mello for several generations.
- Located in the municipality of Arraiolos, about an hour's drive from Lisbon, the estate occupies a vast area of typical Alentejan landscape.
- The excellent geological conditions and the climate are well suited to the production of some of the best wine that the Alentejo has to offer.
- A great deal has been invested in planting vines and also in modern winemaking equipment and in meteorological and plant-health facilities.
- Investment at Monte da Ravasqueira has also been directed at the infrastructures of an ambitious oenotourism project.
- Monte da Ravasqueira is committed to the production of distinctive quality wines, while it is also engaged in a number of other activities involving the production of cork, olive oil and honey, as well as rearing fine cattle and breeding the Lusitanian horse.
- Monte da Ravasqueira won the World Four-in-Hand Carriage Driving Championship in 1996.

MONTE DA RAVASQUEIRA

- In 1996 Monte da Ravasqueira organized and hosted its first Driving contest, which was given the name First International Friendship Driving Contest. The event attracted hundreds of visitors to the region.
- In March 2006 more than 80 competitors from across Europe took part in the 4th Iberian Driving Cup, which was held at Monte da Ravasqueira and included two important international contests.
- The event was also a form of paying tribute to and promoting the Lusitano Horse.
- Today, Monte da Ravasqueira is outstanding in the selection and marketing of working horses of proven quality in national and international Obstacle, Dressage and Carriage-driving contests.
