NO. 51

PUBLISHED MONTHLY NOVEMBER 2005

From the President's Paddock...

We just returned from the Dust Devil Ride, which had the distinction of being the last ride of the PNER season. It was a fitting finale, with gorgeous weather, fun costumes, and nice trails. And yes, the pigs added that little "something", although I have to admit after all the stories from last year, I was secretly hoping they'd make a romp through camp again just to see the chaos (ok, I'm bad, I know). I felt really lucky to be back riding Peek-A-Boo again, and was delighted to finish with both of us happy. It was also a unique event to ride with my husband, Jeff on the same distance and we really enjoyed romping through the desert as Gypsy Pirates.

Fantasies aside, now that the season is about wrapped up we've got our focus on convention in January. Sandy and I are really excited about the hotel and all the events planned, and we're making a trip down to Portland next month to hammer out final details with the hotel. As for events, Valerie Kanavy, World Champion Endurance Rider, will be flying out from Florida to share her insights on horse selection and conditioning, and we have our local vets putting together a forum on cutting edge modalities. We also have a unique opportunity for interactive sessions with a couple who specialize in customizing core strengthening and stretching to very specific scenarios (such as endurance riding) so we can learn to stay healthy and strong as we grow older in this sport. Highlights of the Championships in Dubai, and Saturday night entertainment, as well as a "welcome" party for Friday night are just a few of the other events planned. Oh, and did I forget the Awards Banquet? The food is going to be fabulous, I can't wait. I hope you'll all plan on joining us for PNER's biggest "jumpstart" event of the year. It's a great opportunity to re-connect with old friends as well as make new ones. We're planning some special recognition for new members as well, so if you know someone who's interested in the sport, but hasn't joined yet, tell them to sign up, and bring them along to convention. And make sure you tell them about the "Early Member Application Special". Go to the VP Corral for details.

Take Care, Julie

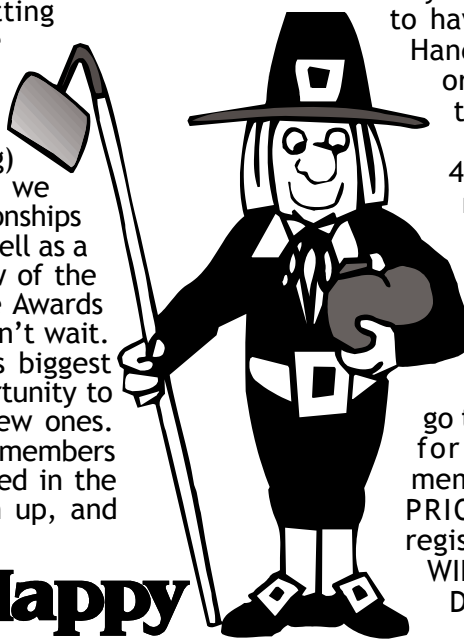

From the VP Corral...

You might notice that in this edition of your newsletter there is a large and prominent registration form pleading with you to renew EARLY. I am right up there with you all who procrastinate like crazy on this kind of thing, but I'm going to make a sincere effort to change my ways. Here are some incentives for you to join me in RENEWING EARLY!! LIKE NOW!!

1. It makes the lives of the registration staff at Convention MUCH easier. They have all your stuff ready for you and that leaves more time for socializing and purchasing. For them AND you.
2. You have the vague feeling, perhaps only transient and fleeting, that you are an Organized Person and your life is not the chaotic mess you always thought it was.
3. By renewing early, you're guaranteed to have your name and address in the Handbook so all your friends can call or email you and beg you to come to just one more ride!
4. You keep getting this great monthly newsletter!

5. Here's the BEST REASON OF ALL: ALL early renewers will have their names entered into a draw for a FREE RIDE ENTRY! Just think—you might be able to go to that ride you've always wanted, for FREE! If you renew your membership (or join for the first time) PRIOR to the opening of the registration desk at convention, YOU WILL BE ENTERED IN THIS EXCITING DRAWING!

So fill out that membership form!
See you at convention, Sandy

Happy Thanksgiving

PNER Handbook 2006

I'll be doing the handbook for 2006. It's that time again to think about getting your ride flyers and regular ads ready. I need to plan space early. The actual copy doesn't have to be sent in until January.

To all PNER members: This handbook goes with PNER families everywhere and is used all year long. We need advertising to make it as self-supporting as possible. Won't you please help by asking businesses you patronize to place an ad? We especially need the front and back covers sold, however, ads of any size are really appreciated.

The handbook will be going to the printers in early February, 2006. Absolute deadline for submitting materials and payment is at the close of convention in January. The handbook will be mailed prior to the start of the ride season.

Ad rates:

Inside front or outside back cover	$150	Half page	$45
Internal full page	$70	Quarter page	$30
Full page ride flyer (Includes 1/2 page in newsletter)	$50	Business Card	$15

If at all possible, please email ads and ride flyers o Lois Fox at pnernews@yahoo.com. Use software I can easily open.

Send payment to Lois Fox: PO Box 3745, Tualatin, OR 97062

Questions? (503) 692-6105.

Make check payable to PNER.

Help!

I'd like to add a new list to the handbook. I want to list all of our past presidents and vice-presidents, as well as Veteran Horse and Ambassador recipients. It just seems like the above list has historical importance to PNER and it's members. I can find some of them from old handbooks, but the problem is that they weren't always listed. If you can fill in any of the blanks, please email me at pnernews@yahoo.com. I'm go back as far as I can get the information.

Thanks for your help. Lois Fox

December 1st deadline

$500 Scholarship!

PNER sponsors a $500 scholarship for members/students continuing their education past high school. The scholarship is awarded at the annual PNER convention to members/students who meet the qualifications and write a historical essay about endurance riding. The due date for the essay is December 1st, and it must be about an endurance ride, rider, horse or other topic associated with PNER. Other qualifications are: the winner must be a PNER member, and have ridden in at least one ride in the preceding ride year. Payment will be made when the student demonstrates that they are registered in a post high school institution. Questions can be directed to Arne Smith at Carlos_5000@msn.com or 541-912-0590.
