CONVENTION NEWS

Don't forget to make your reservations for January 26 – 28th 2007, at the Embassy Suites, Portland (7900 NE 82nd Avenue, 97220) The reservation number is 1-800-Embassy. Make sure to mention you're with PNER for a special rate.

It's a fabulous hotel, and we've reserved a block of rooms for convention at the discounted price of $104/night. Remember this price is for a two room suite, complete with Fridge, Microwave, and coffeepot. It also comes with a full cooked to order buffet breakfast each morning, and hosted Manager's reception each night. Make your reservations now, while there's still room! (Note: Ability to reserve at the discounted rate expires January 15th.)

PRE-REGISTRATION – We're offering pre-registration for convention this year.

DO IT! The number of banquet tickets we can sell is limited due to space constraints and accommodating the Trade Show, so it's really to your advantage to sign up ahead. You'll be able to send your membership renewal and convention registration together to Tiffany, and we're offering incentives for both. We'll have forms for this on the website, and also in the newsletter.

Convention Price is $35 for Adults, $15 kids 3 – 10, free for kids 2 & under. This includes the Trade Show, all the Speakers/Presentations, and the Saturday night banquet!

As usual, we'll be having our Annual Board Meeting during convention weekend, and although it's mostly board members in attendance, any PNER members are welcome to attend. It's currently scheduled for 3:00 pm Friday afternoon. The General Membership Meeting will be at 10:30 on Saturday.

Olin Balch has offered to put on 2 educational "Wet Lab" sessions as extra events on Friday & Sunday. These have been so popular we decided to offer two sessions to accommodate more people. There will be a small charge for this and space will be limited. Look for an announcement from Darlene Anderson with more details on the PNER listserv, or contact her by phone, (360) 833-8975 if you're interested.

Renew and Register Early! – Remember if you renew your membership early (i.e. by January 15th), you'll get a chance for that Free Ride Entry!! And you'll also spend less time at the registration desk once you get there. If you also pre-register for convention, you'll just go to the "Express Line" to pickup your tickets. That will help not only you, but the volunteers working the desk as well. Make sure to take care of this as soon as you arrive. We are expecting most people to pre-register this year, so the desk will be open as long as possible Friday night, but will be closing fairly early on Saturday. Remember, you'll need your entrance tag to get into the events.

Top 30 Seniors & Top 15 Juniors – Don't forget to double-check that your info is correct as posted in this newsletter, and contact Sandy Cheek with your preferred size at 2cheeks@homenetnw.net

Junior Lunch – It's Free if you sign up ahead of time! This is an opportunity to connect with your peers and have a voice in PNER. Elect your new Junior Rep and they'll bring your topics to the Sunday am Board Meeting. Contact Jessica Anderson to sign up endurancechica@yahoo.com or (360) 629-6271.

Team Lip Sync Contest – Yes, we'll be offering this opportunity for fun and frivolity once again, so get your team act together and start rehearsing. This was a wildly popular event last year – you don't want to miss it.

The Convention Schedule – The Trade Show opens at 11:00 on Friday, and we're beefing up the Friday night activities to include MORE of the annual awards, MORE shopping, and an extended social gathering. So make plans to be there Friday night for the State Awards, Team Awards, Sandybaar, 250 Mile Pins, and IAHA presentation. Those events start at 7:00pm. We'll also have some fun prizes and trivia. We'll be combining this event with extended Trade Show shopping too.

New Years Resolutions for your Endurance Horse

- I will NOT roll in streams or try to roll when my human is on my back.
- I will NOT leap over large nonexistent obstacles when the whim strikes.
- I will NOT walk faster on the way home than I did on the way out.
- I promise NOT to swish my tail while my human is cleaning my back feet.
- I promise also NOT to choose that particular time to answer nature's call.
- I will NOT bite my farrier's butt just because it is there.
- I will NOT confuse my human's blond hair for really soft hay.
- I will NOT wipe green slime down the back of my human's white shirt.
- I will NOT blow my nose on my human.
- I CAN walk and potty at the same time. I can, I can, I can.
- I will NOT stop and potty every time I pass the same spot in the arena.
- I will NOT leave when my rider falls off.
- My stall is NOT my litter box. When I have free access to my paddock, I will NOT go back inside to potty.
- I will NOT try to mooch goodies off every human within a 1 mile radius.
- I will NOT lay totally flat out in my stall with my eyes glazed over and my legs straight out and pretend I can't hear my human frantically screaming "Are you asleep?"
- I will NOT chase the ponies into the electric fence to see if it is on.
- I will promise NEVER to dump the wheelbarrow of manure over while a human is mucking my stall.
- I will NOT grab my lead rope in my mouth and attempt to lead myself.
- I will NOT have an attitude problem. I won't, I won't, I won't!
- I will NOT pull my new shoes off the very next day just to prove that I can.
- I am neither a beaver nor a carpenter. I promise I won't eat or remodel the barn or the new fences.
- I WILL forgive my human for the very bad haircut, even though I look like a freak.
- I accept that not every carrot is for me.
- I will NOT do the Arab Teleport Trick when a bad/naughty/awful Horsasaurus Monster breathes at me.
- I will NOT jump in the air and turn 180 degrees every time I see a bicycle.
- I will understand that bicycles are NOT carnivorous.
- I will NOT shy at familiar objects just for fun.
- I will NOT bite the butt of the horse in front of me during the trail ride just to say "Hi".
- I WILL put my ears forward and cooperate when it comes to photos.

PNER Handbook 2007

Attention Advertisers and Ride Managers

---

Every year every PNER member household receives a handbook prior to the start of the new ride season or when dues are paid. The handbook supports itself through advertising. The rates have not changed in many years and are very reasonable.

Changes this year!!! Please read this if you will be placing an ad or ride flyer. Times have changed, and the only way the printer will accept the handbook is computer generated. This means that I am no longer able to accept hard copies. I must have the ads and ride flyers emailed to me or submitted on a CD. The handbook will be going to the printers in early February, 2007. Absolute deadline for submitting materials and payment is at the close of convention. Janelle Wilde has generously offered to scan your hard copy and email it to me, if you need help. She can be reached at 541 849-2460.

Ad rates:

Inside front or back cover	$150
Internal full page	70
Full page ride flyer	50
Includes ½ page in newsletter
Half page	45
Quarter page	30
Business Card	15

Please email all ads and ride flyers to Lois Fox at pnernews@yahoo.com

Send check made out to PNER to Lois Fox: PO Box 3745, Tualatin, OR 97062 or include payment with convention registration.

What I Did This Summer

By Carol Crawford Meyers

I live at the base of the mountains that are used for the Limestone Challenge Endurance Ride in Cave Junction, Oregon. So I feel very lucky to be able to ride in these beautiful mountains when I get a notion to. At the same time I go up to enjoy the beauty of this land, I just can't avoid seeing that others who travel thru the same area don't appreciate and respect the land as I do. Each time I return from a ride, my saddle makes jingling noises caused by all the cans and bottles I pick up while riding along the roads and trails. Sometimes I feel sad, sometimes mad, and sometimes I thank the dumb jerk that threw down the 5 cent container so that I could pick it up and return it for the deposit.

The Limestone Challenge ride had not been put on since 2000, so as I was checking roads and trails that I don't normally ride, I was amazed at how much garbage had accumulated in just 6 years. I felt embarrassed that people from Nevada, Washington, California and other parts of Oregon would be coming here to ride in the beautiful Southern Oregon mountains and instead just find mile after mile of garbage left by uncaring 'locals.' So I decided I would make a summer project of picking up after the 'local slob' that frequent this area. As I rode, I picked up ALL the garbage that I could carry on my trusty horse, Piney. There was so much garbage I started carrying large feed sacks and trash bags with me because I couldn't fit it all in just my saddle bags and hope to get the trails cleared by the ride date, October 7th. I kept the trash that I had picked up off the trails separate from my personal trash so that I could see just how much was out there. It started to get difficult to find places to keep it, but with some creativity, I managed to keep it contained in some extra water barrels I wasn't using at the time. I did come across a few sites where some really 'bright' people had dumped truck loads of garbage. I did find two names in the trash piles and have turned the evidence over to the authorities. I hope they made the offenders pick up all the trash with tweezers!

About a week before the ride was to take place, I decided I was done with this project. I gathered all the garbage together and had my husband take a picture of what others think of these beautiful mountains that we all live in. I would like to say this to anyone out there that throws beer and pop cans, potato chip bags, candy wrappers, etc., out the window of their car, truck or whatever mode of transportation they choose as they travel down any road or trail, paved, gravel or dirt, "What you leave behind you tells all the rest of us just WHO you really are. I don't care if you drive a rusty old truck or a BMW, or perhaps a new Ford 4x4, if you throw garbage out of your vehicle, YOU ARE A SLOB!"

After the ride was over and we went out to take down the trail markings, I was amazed to find many NEW beer cans that had been thrown down just in the last two weeks or so, since hunting season opened. I guess the old saying holds true, A woman's work is never done. Am I fighting a losing battle? Will the slob take over the earth? I think I will continue the fight. Will you join me?
